UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

Petitioner,
Chester Brown

v.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Respondent.

Civil No. : S1 18 CR 818(VB)

Motion For Production of Records & Documents

Comes now, the Petitioner, CHESTER BROWN, in pro se and moves the Clerk of Court for a copy of the following records and documents sufficient that I may later file a motion seeking relief. Specifically, I need a copy of the following:

- Updated copy of the Docket Sheet
- Copy of the transcripts - Sentencing
- Copy of any Orders and decisions
- Copy of any and all discovery information that is on the record

Petitioner has a right to a meaningful appeal based upon a complete transcript. U.S. v. Morgan, 191 F3d 532 (4th Cir. 1999). Petitioner, an indigent movant cannot be denied a 'record of sufficient completeness' as to permit a proper consideration of my claims. Mayer v. Chicago, 404 US 189 (1971). Petitioner's Constitutional right to access to legal resources (such as sought here) is not conditioned upon a showing of need. Ruark v. Solano, 928 F2d 947 (10th Cir. 1991). And the Supreme Court has held that the supplying of a trial transcript to an indigent may not be conditioned upon approval of a judge. Draper v. Washington, 372 US 487, 83 SCt 774, 9 LEd2d 899 (1963). Please forward the requested materials to the address listed below.
